

Widen pavement to slow vehicle speeds and reduce crossing distance

New secure cycle parking stands

Remove central island

Raise road to pavement level to provide a level crossing point

New double yellow lines with no loading at any time restrictions

The above is an example of the proposed approach to be used for all the pedestrian crossings changes