The purpose of the processing

The Green Space team are carrying out engagement with local residents, communities, businesses and voluntary/community organisations on what improvements are needed at Talacre Town Green playground. The Council's priority for future work at this green space will be informed by this feedback.

We are working with Shape Landscape Architects to carry out this engagement. Our main aim is to find out what improvements would most benefit local residents so we can propose new designs.

The Council and Shape will collect and share e-mail addresses of this people that email greenspaceimprovements@camden.gov.uk, Graeme.Shimmin@camden.gov.uk and richard@shape.eu.com and bridget@shape.eu.com, and provide email addresses, telephone number and postal addresses on the online survey at We Ae Camden.

This information will only be shared with agreement.

We are collecting some Special Category data (disability and ethnicity), with residents agreement only, as part of Equalities Monitoring form. This information will be used to help us identify if a broad range of residents has been reached and to target groups where views have not been represented or under represented.

All data collected will only be used for the purpose of this project.
